Notes

Note 1. Anyone who holds a Premises Licence is required to notify the Licensing Authority which issued their Licence of any change of name or address. The Licensing Authority will then change the details on their Premises Licence and reissue the licence. It is a criminal offence not to notify the Licensing Authority of such changes. At Box 1 enter the name and/or address on the existing Premises Licence. Please ensure you provide details of all holders of the licence whether held by an individual, partnership or company. If a company registration number has changed you cannot use this form, you must make a separate application to transfer the licence instead.

Note 2. This is the new name and/or address for the premises licence holder. We will ordinarily send all correspondence to the address you give including any request for annual fees.

Note 3. You are required to send your Premises Licence to us with this notification form. If you cannot do so you are required to make a statement in the box provide as to why you cannot.

Note 4. Fees. See separate fees document. We will accept payment by credit/debit card over the phone (please mark the top of your form to receive a phone call) or by cheque payable to 'Elmbridge Borough Council'.
